9. Internal Control System

The Board of Directors, during its meeting No. 01/2012 dated 30/01/2012, decided to set up the Internal Control Department which is granted sufficient independence to perform its duties and shall report to the Board of Directors through the Audit Committee.

1. Internal control

a. Definition

Internal control is the process effected by the Board of Directors of Insurance House, management and staff, designed to provide reasonable assurance of effectively and efficiently meeting various operational and financial objectives.

All levels of management at IH (BOD, senior management, line managers, officers, and departments) are responsible for establishing internal control processes to maintain and keep the Company on course toward its financial goals, to help the company to achieve its mission, to minimize risk, and to more effectively deal with change.

In addition, to properly apply therein the corporate governance rules, to ensure that the Company and its employees are complying with the provisions of the applicable laws, regulations and decisions (that regulates its duties) and internal policies and procedures, and to review the financial data that is submitted to the BOD and is used in drafting the financial statements.

The internal control system was issued by the Board of Directors. A department specialized in internal control shall apply such system.

Internal Control Department which is granted sufficient independence to perform its duties and shall report to the Board of Directors through the Audit Committee

b. Purpose

Describes a unified approach for evaluation of the internal control systems that management has designed to:

- provide reasonable assurance of achieving corporate mission, objectives, goals and desired outcome;
- while adhering to laws and regulations;
- allow the Company to accurately report successes and outcomes to the public and interested third parties;
- and serves as a common basis for management, directors, regulators, employees and others to better Understand internal controls, enterprise risk management.

The following is included in its tasks and annual review:

- Key control elements, including controlling the financial affairs, operations and risk management
- Changes triggered since the last annual review relating to the nature and extent of the key risks and the Company's ability to respond to changes in its business and external environment
- The scope and quality of the Board's ongoing surveillance of risks, the internal control system and the duties of the internal auditors
- Number of times the Board or its committees have been informed about the outcomes of the control duties to enable them to assess the internal control status of the Company and the effectiveness of risk management
- Detected failures or weaknesses in the control system or unexpected emergencies that have impacted or may have an intrinsic impact on the performance or financial position of the company.
- The effectiveness of the company's financial reporting and compliance with listing and disclosure rules
- To ensure the segregation of duties
- To verify the fixed assets
- To follow up the powers and authorizations of the Management

2. Components of Internal Control:

a. Control Environment:

- The control environment sets the tone for an organization. It provides discipline, structure and strongly influences the control consciousness of the people within the organization.
- The control at Insurance House (IH) begins with the philosophy and operating style as well as the priorities and direction provided by the Company.
- Within IH departments, key factors in the control environment include integrity, ethical values and competence of personnel.

b. Risk Assessment:

- Risk assessment is the identification and analysis of relevant risks which may prevent a department from meeting its operational, financial and compliance objectives.
- Business managers at IH assess risks based on types of processes/activities performed, organizational structure, staffing levels and attitudes within the department.

c. Control Activities:

Control activities established through various committees such as Audit & Risk Committee, Nomination and Remuneration Committee, and the establishment of an Internal Control function. Policies and procedures are established to ensure that management's directives are implemented.

Managers and staff of all levels are aware of IH policies & procedures, system controls and supplement these procedures & controls with department level guidance when necessary.

d. Information and Communication:

Pertinent information must be identified, captured and communicated in a form and timeframe that enables management and staff to carry out their responsibilities.

IH managers have solid lines of communication between the departments and central functions as well between management and staff. Appropriate systems have been effectively implemented and required MIS reports are being reviewed for necessary management decisions and process improvements when required.

e. Monitoring:

Monitoring is a process that assesses the quality of the internal control system and processes. IH management, line managers and staff are responsible for monitoring the activities performed, processes and business targets.

Internal Audit provided assurance over these controls.

3. Internal control objectives:

Management has established internal control objectives in order to effectively assess areas of potential risk.

The following key internal control objectives apply to IH:

- Accuracy of financial statements
- Validity of transactions
- Timeliness and completeness in processing transactions
- Compliance with applicable regulations, laws and policies & procedures

4. Internal control activities:

The following internal control activities are the tools used in accomplishing these objectives:

a. Establishing a Control Conscious Environment:

IH has implemented Code of conduct to set a tone within the departments which is essential in developing sound internal controls. IH management ensures that employees are properly trained, are knowledgeable of rules, regulations, applicable laws, policies and procedures. They receive feedback on a regular basis; all these factors are key attributes of a good control conscious environment at IH.

b. Segregation of duties:

The separation of certain functions such as initiating, authorizing, recording and reconciling transactions is an important control activity. The amount of segregation possible within a department depends on the size and structure of the department. However, every effort is made by business managers to ensure that one person does not have control over all parts of a transaction.

c. Authorization / Approval Processes:

Approving and authorizing responsibilities within IH are limited to a few people.

Any delegated authority is clearly documented and approved by the BOD, system passwords and access privileges are controlled and monitored. All supportive documentation is reviewed for validity, completeness and accuracy.

d. Physical Control of Assets:

Managers are responsible for the physical control of assets within the departments. Safeguards are implemented to ensure proper accountability of assets. Security gadgets have been installed and inspected.

e. Monitoring:

Monitoring activities include review of financial statements, department feedback sessions, internal evaluations, MIS reports and Internal/External Audits. This framework is subject to annual review or as situation warrants for necessary modification(s).

5. How the Internal Control Department handle any significant issues in the company, or issues disclosed in the annual reports and accounts:

The Internal Control Department deals with any significant issue in the company with independence and objectivity through informing the Audit Committee and the senior management of the company about the issue and potential risks and recommending the necessary steps to address the issue and prevent it from repeating. The Audit Committee takes the necessary decisions to address the issue and avoid its repetition in the future. The Internal Control Department shall follow up with the senior management and the departments to ensure that the procedures and decisions taken are implemented.

It is worth noting that the company did not encounter any significant issues during 2021.

Mr. Charles Jacques Hajetian is the Manager of the Internal Control Department and Compliance Officer since 27/10/2013. He holds a Master's degree in Business Administration from the Lebanese American University (LAU). He has more than thirteen years of experience in internal auditing and compliance in banks and insurance companies in Lebanon, Yemen and the United Arab Emirates. Previously was the Acting Head of Internal Audit Department at Trust Compass Insurance (Lebanon) and Trust Yemen Insurance and Reinsurance Co.

The Board of Directors of the Insurance House acknowledges its responsibility for the Internal Control system in the Company and its review of the functioning mechanism of internal control and ensuring its effectiveness through the Audit Committee in accordance with the Chairman of Authority's Board of Directors' Decision No. (3/Chairman) of 2020 concerning Approval of Joint Stock Companies Governance Guide.

6. Number of reports issued by the Internal Control Department to the Company's Board of Directors.

2 reports were issued by the Internal Control Department during the year 2021.

10. Violations committed during financial year 2021.

No violations were committed during 2021.

11. Company's contributions during 2021 toward the local community development and environmental conservation

Insurance House has been keen to implement an effective strategy to contribute to the development of the local community and the conservation of the environment, motivated by the belief in creating a movement for a better life. Starting from their social responsibility and commitment, the company has participated in a number of social activities that are of public benefit for the environment and society.

In efforts to continuously support the community, especially during the pandemic, Insurance House was the first and only insurance company to announce that it will offer a 35% discount on Motor Insurance Policies for people who have received the Covid-19 vaccination in the UAE. This gesture was created to applaud the government's efforts to vaccinate the country, and in return, do our part and support these efforts and prioritize the health and safety of the community.

As part of the "Fund of the UAE, Homeland of Humanity" Initiative, Insurance House gladly continued offering a 50% discount on vehicle insurance for Police and Army Officers, Civil Defense workers, Health Sector workers, Red Crescent volunteers, People of Determination, & the elderly to support our heroes and whomever was facing difficulties in these challenging times.

Insurance House participated this year, as every year, in the Earth Hour initiative whereby all power and lights were shut off in all branches. The Earth's climate is changing faster than nature can adapt, and our participation was a simple gesture representing our commitment to preserve the environment as much as possible through recycling paper and supporting energy saving alternatives.

Taking a role in supporting our community's youth, Insurance House developed an Internship Program whereby both local and expatriate students in their third or fourth university year could apply. During the internship duration, students were exposed to the company's day-to-day operations, met with employees who mentored them, and experienced the company's office culture.

In celebration of UAE Teachers' Day in October, Insurance House launched a 50% discount for all teachers on Motor Insurance Policies, as a token of appreciation for all their hard efforts in guiding, inspiring, and teaching our future generation.

Moreover, Insurance House renewed its partnership with Fazaa, a social initiative which aims to develop social interdependence and maintain effective bonds of solidarity within the UAE community. "Fazaa" members could benefit from the IH motor insurance policies offers by showing their "Fazaa" membership card at any of Insurance House's branches across the UAE.

On the occasion of UAE's 50th National Day, Insurance House launched a celebratory offer which includes a 50% discount on Motor Insurance Policies, valid throughout the duration of 50 days.
