Insurance House Appoints Mohammad Abu Quora as New CEO to Drive Strategic Growth

Abu Dhabi, UAE – 11 February 2025 – Insurance House, a subsidiary of Finance House Group and a leading provider of innovative insurance solutions, has announced the appointment of Mohammad Alamin Abu Quora as its new Chief Executive Officer. This strategic leadership change marks a significant step toward strengthening the company's position in the evolving insurance landscape.

Mr. Abu Quora brings over 30 years of expertise in the insurance industry, having held key executive leadership roles across the Middle East. His extensive experience spans strategic leadership, business development, innovation, and operational excellence. Throughout his career, he has successfully led major initiatives, spearheaded large-scale insurance programs, and forged strategic partnerships that have driven sustainable business growth.

Commenting on the appointment, Mohammed Alqubaisi, Chairman of Insurance House, said: "We are pleased to welcome Mr. Mohammad Abu Quora as the new CEO of Insurance House. His deep industry knowledge, leadership acumen, and proven ability to drive growth make him the right leader to steer the company into its next phase of success."

Expressing his enthusiasm, Mr. Abu Quora stated: "I am honored to join Insurance House and excited to lead a team that is committed to excellence and innovation. Together, we will build on the company's strong foundation, enhance customer-centric solutions, and continue contributing to the advancement of the UAE's insurance sector."
